

COUNTY INVITES COMMUNITY FAMILIES TO ENJOY FREE MOVIES IN THE PARK IN NORTH AND SOUTH BRYAN

BRYAN COUNTY, GA – November 13, 2017 – Coastal Georgia likely won't experience freezing outdoor temperatures around the holiday season, but area residents can still enjoy the chill vicariously through the characters of a popular, family-friendly film.

Bryan County is planning two free Movie in the Park nights, featuring the hit children's film "Frozen," for community members to enjoy as the time for holiday festivities approaches. The first screening, scheduled for 6-9 p.m. Friday, Dec. 1, will be at Devaul Henderson Recreation Park in Richmond Hill in South Bryan. The second event, slated for 6-9 p.m. Friday, Dec. 8, will be at George D. Hendrix Park in Ellabell in North Bryan county.

At both events, families are encouraged to bring chairs, blankets and snacks to enjoy a free evening of entertainment and family-friendly fun. From 6-6:30 p.m., before the movie starts, Santa will make a special guest appearance. He'll mingle with the crowd and pose for pictures until Queen Elsa and Princess Anna take to the big screen, journeying through a seemingly endless winter in the fictional kingdom of Arendelle.

"We encourage families in both the north and south parts of Bryan County to come together and enjoy a Friday night of free family fun in two of our beautiful parks," County Administrator Ben Taylor said. "Attending a Movie in the Park is a great way to unwind and let your kids enjoy some outdoor fun at the end of a long work week."
